Family Law Conference

Family lawyers often face the ongoing challenge of handling issues that can confound even the most experienced practitioners. In this advanced-level six-hour program, the panelists will cover the Supreme Court's historic decisions regarding DOMA and the Proposition 8 case on same-sex marriage, attorney fees as sanctions, inter-spousal fiduciary duties, custody issues, the psychological aspects of divorce, and recent trends and developments in family law.

- Psychological & Counseling Aspects of Divorce —How Men, Women and Children Are Affected by Divorce
- Attorney Fees as Sanctions and Inter-spousal Fiduciary Duties
- Discovery and Disclosures in Family Law Practice
- Handling Issues related to the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) and Proposition 8 Cases

This program assumes some experience in handling family law matters.

Speakers: Debra Frank, Debra S. Frank, A Professional Law Corporation, Los Angeles, Seth Daniel Kramer, Marina Del Ray

1:15 pm - 4:30 pm

Coscheduled with Year in Review in Family Law Practice
Alternative Dispute Resolution in Family Law Matters and Limited Scope Representation or Unbundling

Alternative Dispute Resolution in Family Law Matters and Limited Scope Representation or Unbundling

What if your client has something to hide from the law and wants a divorce? Not every divorcing couple is the Cleavers. Expert family law practitioners Vivian Holley, Marjorie Slabach and M. Sue Talia will discuss the ethical complications of the various ADR models when the process of a public divorce may expose one or both of the parties to criminal or other liability. The program will also cover implications for limited scope representation and private judging when more collaborative attempts to resolve the issues fail.

$259, includes luncheon FA09333-1027Z

3 hours of MCLE credit (including Family Law Specialization Credit in Dissolution of Marriage, Custody of Children, Child Support, and Division of Community Property)
